In a purpose to make more rich the contest of it's annual competition and make whole event more interesting, Zemun International Salon of Caricature in 2005 organized, together with the club and association "Široka staza", first international Cartoon Colony. Colony was held in the eve of the opening ceremony of tenth Salon, from 4th till 6th June 2005, and except the awarded cartoonists on the competition - Peter Nieuwendijk (Holland), Florian Doru Crihana (Romania), Ivan Kutuzov (Bulgaria), Michael Kountouris (Greece) and Vlado Volaš (Serbia and Montenegro) - on it participated several cartoonists from Zemun and Belgrade - Tošo Borković, Jovan Prokopljević, Goran Miladić and Dušan Gađanski. Both participants and a numerous visitors were excited with the event, specially with spontaneous and non convention atmosphere and the hospitality of people from the club "Široka staza" and mostly with the unique ambient - oasis of virgin nature on the bank of the Danube, but just a few steps from the center of town and it's more traffic street. A lot of visitors went home with their caricatures, drowned by some of the participants, and the guests from abroad, comparing Zemun colony with other similar events world around on which they used to participate, gave priority to Zemun.

Pirht Cifirin Šimka staza"

Artists draws

Right: Chief guard of the bbitbisavljević (on the left)

Left: Dieter van Bavel Right: Dieter van Bavel Burkamp

Opening Ceremony

Cruise in colony

Artists works

Right: Preparing lunch

Artists works

Arrival on "Široka staza"

Children also participated

Artists works

Artists working

Richard Orsch, Bojana Ivanović, Jaroslav Vlahović, Branko Najhold

Eight participants and hosts of the Colony